[Numb. 1034]

South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From TUESDAY April 2d, to TUESDAY April 9th, 1734.

The HUMOURIST is become an Incumbrance, and as he loves Retirement muſt quit the fooliſh buſy World, and paſſe his vacant Hours with the ſecret Satisfaction of having intentionally diſpleaſed no one. He thanks the Publick for having generouſly conſtrued theſe Papers; but, for ſome private Reaſons, is under a Neceſſity of declaring, that he will never more (either under this or any other Title, or on any Pretence, or on any Occaſion whatſoever) enter the Liſts of Authoriſm in this Province.

LONDON, January 17.

ACCORDING to letters received from Algiers by the way of Naples, the dey has declared, that if the French ſend a ſquadron of men of war to demand the ſlaves that were made on board Capt. Prepaud's ſhip (lately taken), he will not return their ſalute; which is the uſual ſignal of a rupture.

The ſame letters add, that the dey had confiſcated an Engliſh ſhip, under pretence of her carrying on a clandeſtine trade; but in reality, upon information that ſhe had a conſiderable ſum of ready money on board.

London, Jan. 22. On ſunday there was a great board at the admiralty, on affairs of importance.

Capt. Speake is appointed to command his majeſty's ſhip the Kent, as is Capt. Shirley the Mermaid, being two of the eſt work of the kind in Europe; and 1200 men are employed upon it.

We hear an order is ſent to Paris for the immediate return of a certain eminent gentleman, on account of an affair depending in parliament.

London, Jan. 26. The laſt letters from Ratiſbon adviſe, that the inſtructions which his Pruſſian majeſty lately ſent to his miniſter at the diet, relating to the affair of Eaſt-Friedland, are expreſſed in the ſtrongeſt terms; and import not only that his majeſty will never recede from his rights and pretenſions to the ſovereignty of that province; but alſo that he will employ the means which providence has put into his hands, to maintain poſſeſſion of it, in caſe the diet ſhould, contrary to all expectation, give a deciſion in prejudice of the juſt claims which his majeſty has clearly expoſed to all Europe. The conſequences of this affair are waited for with great impatience, as his Britannick majeſty (theſe letters add) is alſo determined to make good his pretenſions to Eaſt-Friedland.

The Imperial court has given orders for compleating all the regiments in its ſervice againſt the 1ſt of May. A great number of cannon, caſt at Vienna, have been ſent by water to Olmutz.

took great Pains to bring about a Peace with the Britiſh court. His Catholic majeſty, in conſideration of his attachment to him when prince of Aſturias, granted him on his return a penſion of 900 piſtoles, which is continued to his widow.

Yeſterday ſeveral perſons were ordered to attend an auguſt aſſembly, on account of ſome tranſactions in the late lottery.

London, Jan. 24. Impreſs warrants having been iſſued by the lords of the admiralty, the boats belonging to the ſeveral guard-ſhips, &c. came up the river on tueſday, and carried off about 1000 ſeamen from on board the merchant-ſhips in the river. And we hear they have got in all near 3000 men within theſe two days, to man the ſquadron intended, it is ſaid, for the Eaſt-Indies, on board of which a regiment of foot will be embarked.

Yeſterday, in ſeveral parts of the ſuburbs, proper officers beat up for volunteers.

Letters from Spain adviſe, that there have been lately launched at Ferrol four ſhips of 64 guns, which are as large as the Engliſh ſhips of 80 or 90 guns; for they have 150 feet keel, and 50 feet extreme breadth. Twelve others of the ſame dimenſions are on the ſtocks. The ſhipbuilders are all Engliſh. The harbour of Ferrol is 30 miles in circumference, and its Entrance ſo narrow, that a cable will reach from one ſide to the other. Part of this harbour they are incloſing into a baſon to lay the ſhips in, with a mould or quay having on its inſide ſtore-houſes, and on the outſide a line of defence that will mount a great number of cannon. When compleated, it is thought this will be the greateſt work of the kind in Europe; and 1200 men are employed upon it.

We hear an order is ſent to Paris for the immediate return of a certain eminent gentleman, on account of an affair depending in parliament.

London, Jan. 26. The laſt letters from Ratiſbon adviſe, that the inſtructions which his Pruſſian majeſty lately ſent to his miniſter at the diet, relating to the affair of Eaſt-Friedland, are expreſſed in the ſtrongeſt terms; and import not only that his majeſty will never recede from his rights and pretenſions to the ſovereignty of that province; but alſo that he will employ the means which providence has put into his hands, to maintain poſſeſſion of it, in caſe the diet ſhould, contrary to all expectation, give a deciſion in prejudice of the juſt claims which his majeſty has clearly expoſed to all Europe. The conſequences of this affair are waited for with great impatience, as his Britannick majeſty (theſe letters add) is alſo determined to make good his pretenſions to Eaſt-Friedland.

The Imperial court has given orders for compleating all the regiments in its ſervice againſt the 1ſt of May. A great number of cannon, caſt at Vienna, have been ſent by water to Olmutz.

They write from Portſmouth, that laſt ſunday the right hon. Sir Edward Hawke, vice-admiral of the blue, made ſignals from the Terrible man of war for a boat with an officer from the following ſhips, viz. Monarch, Capt. Martin; Captain, Capt. Catford; and Tyger, Capt. Marſhal; when the officers came on board, they received orders to get their reſpective ſhips with all expedition ready for the ſea.

We hear that Sir Edward Hawke will command the ſquadron of men of war deſtined for the Eaſt-Indies.

We hear that general Skelton's regiment of foot will be ordered on board the fleet bound for the Eaſt-Indies.

The preſs continues ſtill very ſtrong. All houſes where ſeamen are ſuſpected to have ſecreted themſelves, are ſearched by the gangs.

There is a picquet guard of 100 men ordered to be in readineſs at the Tower on a minute's warning, to quell any diſturbance that may happen on account of the preſs for ſeamen.

The hon. the Eaſt-India company have ordered three ſhips that were intended for Bombay, to go to fort St. George.

London, Jan. 29. On thurſday Mr. Maddox, one of his majeſty's meſſengers, ſet out with diſpatches from the right hon. the earl of Holderneſſe's office, to his excellency the earl of Albemarle at Paris.

We hear that the men of war deſigned for the Eaſt-Indies, are ordered to be Spithead by the 10th of February, in order to proceed with the company's ſhips bound for thoſe parts.

Col. Aldercron's regiment, upon the Iriſh Eſtabliſhment, is ordered for the Eaſt-Indies, and to be augmented to 1000 men by draughts from the different regiments in Ireland.

We hear that commodore Proctor will have a conſiderable command in the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies.

It is reported that the [illegible] lately ſailed for the Eaſt-Indies, [illegible] 3000 land forces on board, with great quantities of warlike ſtores and proviſions.

The maſter of a ſhip arrived at Plymouth on thurſday laſt from Gibraltar ſays, that a veſſel was arrived there the day he failed, who had put into Port-Vecchio road, where the maſter ſaw the bay full of French men of war, which were waiting only for orders to put to ſea.

Lieutenant-colonel Wolfe is appointed by his majeſty, colonel of the regiment of foot in the Weſt-Indies, lately commanded by col. Trelawney.

By letters from Dublin we have advice that the right hon. Thomas Carter, eſq; maſter of the rolls in Ireland, Anthony Malone, Eſq; his majeſty's prime ſergeant at law, and Michael O'Brian Dalton, Eſq; quarter-maſter and barrack-maſter general, were, on friday the 28th inſtant, diſmiſſed from their employments; and Richard Boyle, Eſq; regiſter of the [illegible] ports, that the French conſul and all thoſe of his nation had received orders to leave Algiers; and that a rupture with France was looked upon as inevitable.

Letters received yeſterday from Paris adviſe, that the greateſt diligence is uſed in fitting out the men of war in the harbour of Toulon; and that ſeveral regiments are on their march to Provence.

We learn from Ratiſbon, that the miniſter of the princeſs of the houſe of Anhalt, has preſented a memorial to the diet, by which they renew their claim to the dutchy of Saxe-Lauenburgh, alledging that his Britannick majeſty, as elector of Hanover, has no legal title to the poſſeſſion of that dutchy. The Hanoverian miniſter immediately preſented a [illegible] declaring the [illegible] of the houſe of Anhalt, and [illegible]

We learn from Madrid, that the Spaniſh court has received advice from the commiſſioners of the navy at St. Andero, that the three 70-gun ſhips [illegible] at that port were lately launched, and that three others of the ſame ſize would immediately be put upon the ſtocks.

The laſt letters from Genoa mention, that the third veſſel belonging to the company, called the [illegible] the firſt at that manufactory.

Accordingly to letters from Marſeilles, the trade of that place is ſo conſiderably augmented, that the number of veſſels which entered that port [illegible] laſt year amounted to [illegible] veſſels more. Of theſe [illegible] from the Levant, [illegible] from the coaſts of Barbary, 84 from the iſland of Malta, [illegible] from different ports of Italy, 203 from Spain, [illegible] Portugal, 48 from the Ocean, [illegible]

Holland; 25 from Sweden, 2 from Denmark, 17 from Russia, 49 from Great Britain, 38 from Newfoundland, and 8 from the French colonies in America. Of these ships there were Italian, Roman, [illegible] Venetian, 16 Portuguese, 7 belonging to the Emperor of Morocco, 120 to those of the Empire, and 125 Dutch, 26 Swedish, 9 Danish, and 80 English.

Accounts of letters from Vienna say, they make no doubt of finding the king of Poland, Elector of Saxony, in the Northern alliance; and that they only delay the views of a certain German potentate, whose circumstances oblige him to lean upon France for support, and who aims at the honour of [illegible] between the two mighty powers.

Advices from Stockholm intimate, that there is no likelihood of seeing any decisive progress making in the affair of the limits of Lapland till next Spring; the Swedes having already laid enough on that head, and the answers of the Russians not being yet explicit enough to admit of a final reply.

Letters from Paris seem to agree with the notions they have at Naples, with regard to the continuance of the tranquility of Italy: the fleet of war fitting out at Toulon, and the French regiments marching towards Provence, being designed to frustrate the advantages which the court of Vienna hopes to reap from its alliance with the duke of Modena. Tho' some are of opinion, that a squadron may be sent from Toulon to chastize the Algerines.

CHARLES-TOWN, April 9.

On Friday last embark'd for England, on board the Ship Edinburgh, Capt. James Ruffel, the Honourable William Middleton and Edward Rutledge, Esqrs. (two of the Members of His [illegible] with their [illegible]

[illegible] Vessels have remained [illegible] Wind-bound.

On Saturday Afternoon sail'd for Virginia, His Majesty's Sloop Jamaica, commanded by Capt. Henry Richards, having on board One of His Majesty's Independent Companies from this Province (consisting of 110 effective Men, besides Officers) which is to be landed at Hampton, where the Jamaica is to proceed immediately to her Station at Providence.

By Capt. Tucker, from St. Auguſtine, we are informed, that on the 20th ult. two likely young Slaves, got to that Place from Georgia, who were immediately made good Chriſtians, and proclaimed free; by which it appears, that the Spaniards continue their unjuſtifiable Practice of encouraging our Slaves to desert to them. From Georgia we are farther informed, that they employ some of the Creek and Cherokee Indians to seduce them away.

For some Days past we have had so much higher Tides than usual, or than have been seen for many Years, that White-Point was almost covered with Water, and where Breaches had been made by the Hurricane much Land washed away.

The Brig William & Jane, Fortescue Ferry, Master, from this Port bound for Boston, was lately cast away going into Sherbro' Harbour on that Coast. The Captain and his Crew with great Difficulty saved their Lives; but Capt. Brown and his Crew (whose Vessel we some Time since informed, was Bottom-ed at Sea) who went Passengers in the said Brig, were all drowned.
